Fuel Film

Josh Tickell's energy independence centered documentary "Fuel" is now playing in U.S. theaters. The biodiesel film provides perspectives of the detriments of U.S. oil addiction. The film, about 111 minutes long, has won several awards, including the 2008 Sundance Film Festivals Audience Award for Best Documentary.

Tickell has embarked on a 25 city tour across the country to show the Film at universities, schools, town halls and political events.
